

Bulls, Bears & Brokers: Bourse Communications' Rod North on investing and market predictions for 2020

21 Jan 2020

Bourse Communications' founder and managing director Rod North provides Proactive with valuable insights into investing and market trends.

The regular business and investment commentator and author says investing is all about doing your research, particularly with markets.

The age-old adage is that you buy at the bottom and sell at the top, but he says to do this successfully you need to be able to read the signs.

North also talks about his forecasts for the new year at the start of a new decade.
