

Eagle Health Holdings ships new diabetes products to China

Jessica Amir December 07, 2017

Eagle Health Holdings (ASX:EHH) has kicked off shipments to China for its new diabetes products and open four new diabetes education and experience stores.

The company exclusively manufactures, markets and distributes the Australian clinically proven pre-meal shakes for type-2 diabetes and pre type-2 diabetes suffers, which have now entered China.

The products are distributed through a network of pharmacies and retail outlets.

The company says it's targeting the 114 million people in China that are diagnosed with diabetes every year.

Shares in Eagle Health Holdings (ASX:EHH) are trading down 1.37 per cent to $0.36.
