

Corporate Ladder: your weekly guide to executive appointments

Nov 30, 2020

In this week's executive appointments column, InDaily tracks the movements of those driving South Australia's public and private sectors in industries including agriculture and law. Plus the latest corporate position opportunities in SA.

Pyne joins XTEK board

Christopher Pyne.

Former Minister for Defence Christopher Pyne appointed to the XTEK Board to complement XTEK's strategic focus on commercialising its proprietary defence products in global markets. The company manufactures ballistic products in Adelaide and has sold its bullet proof technology in Finland and the US.

Pyne is the current Chairman of Pyne and Partners and Principal of GC Advisory, consulting to business in the domain of government and political engagement. Both are headquartered in Adelaide, South Australia but operate nationally and globally. He is an Industry Professor in the University of South Australia Business School specialising in Defence and Space.

<https://indaily.com.au/news/business/2020/11/30/corporate-ladder-your-weekly-guide-to-executive-appointments-32/>